13	Add color to the portrait and cut it out. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Look closely at the color of your skin. Try to use realistic skin colors to color your face and neck.</li><li>• If you are using oil pastels, start with a light color and shade in your face. Then, you can use a darker color around the eyes, nose, and mouth to show the shadows.</li><li>• If you are using paint, start with light colors of paint and a larger brush to paint your face one light color. Then, use a smaller brush to mix darker colors with the paint to create shadows. If the color is too light or dark, you can paint over it when it is dry with a different color.</li><li>• Use a small paintbrush for the details like the hair and eyes. Allow the paint to dry.</li><li>• Use your scissors to cut around your face, hair, and neck.</li></ul> TIP: Try not to use black paint or black oil pastels until all of the other colors are added.
